Ndey is a timid child but doing well in class. She is always punctual and likes reading. The parents are struggling to maintain the family of five plus their extended family. Both parents are dealers of fish at the Brufut beach. Their income combined is less than 100 pounds making it hard for them to provide quality living standard and provide the education needed for their children. Ndey Yasin is in need of a sponsor to enable her to continue to her schooling.
